

Google's Find My Device is now Google's Find Hub

Google's app Find My Device is now known as Find Hub. With the rebrand, Google also changed the Works with Android badge. The old badge and the new badge indicate that a product works with Google's Find My Device, now known as Find Hub.

OLD

If you notice the old version of the badge on our products, do not worry. These products work with Google's Find Hub. But implementing the new badges everywhere will take some time. The difference is purely visual and does not affect functionality – you can locate your Fresh 'n Rebel Smart Finder in the Find Hub app as before.

NEW

With the rebranding, Google changed the name of the app to Find Hub instead of Find My Device. Go to Google Play and search for Google's Find Hub app. Custom language versions are available for many different countries:
